SALT LAKE ALL RIGHT.

Edmund Scribner Stevens of New York tossed off a terrible prophecy today. He declared that twenty-nine American cities were doomed to destruction within a short space of time. Although, as a rule, we haven't a great deal of faith in prophecies, especially since the election, we must confess that we glanced through the list earnestly and with much care. It was such a relief, oh, such a relief, to find that Salt Lake City was not mentioned.

The doomed towns are New York, Chicago, Washington, Albany, Buffalo, Detroit, Lansing, Boston, Philadelphia, Richmond, Lebanon, Pa.; Pittsburgh, Columbus, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, Muskegon, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Hanover, Mo.; St.
Joseph, Mo.; Omaha, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Denver. London, Paris and Rome are equally doomed.

The prophet declares the destruction will be brought about thus:

"The world is in the throes of an upheaval which eventually will right the earth and make the north pole north and the south pole south. Instead of having the earth's axis on a slant. That upheaval will cause flood, fire and earthquake and most of the large cities of the world are going to suffer; some of them are going to be destroyed."

Mr. Stevens doesn't fix any date for the disasters, so we may expect them almost any minute. But as long as Salt Lake is safe—though the assertion certainly does sound mighty selfish —let us try not to worry. And, to tell the frozen truth, we don't believe the people in the cities that the prophet has doomed are going to do a great deal of worrying.

SCHOOL BOARD NOMINEES.

With the nominations for the board of education complete except in the First municipal ward, it is evident that the board will be composed of good men no matter who is chosen by the voters. Although the "American" party has given a color of partisan politics to the choice of its candidates, the personality of the men named is fair assurance in itself that they would not sacrifice the public school system for partisan advantage; and the non-partisan nominations carry the same guarantee of regard for the welfare of the schools.

Unless some unforeseen developments indicate a sinister plan to capture the schools for political purposes, therefore, it may be taken for granted that personality alone should govern the voters in their selections. The fact that a candidate is an "American" or a non-partisan need not be considered, but his fitness for the position, his position in the community and his familiarity with educational matters ought to be the determining factors.

A good deal of idle talk has been furnished both by the "Americans" who attack the present administration and by others who predict disaster if any "American" happens to be elected.
The "Americans" insist that political and religious considerations have entered into the management of the schools by the present board, but the record will not sustain any such charge and it is unfair, not only to the board, but to the reputation of the whole city to make such an accusation.

Doubtless there have been mistakes of judgment and there will always be room for improvement in any public school system, but taken as a whole, the Salt Lake schools are admirably managed, faithfully administered, and the corps of teachers shows a loyalty and efficiency that deserve any serious criticism of the system. On the other hand, while the "American" administration of city affairs has been disgracefully rotten, the men who have been named by the party for the school board are all men of high character, of good business capacity and have shown a public spirit that entitles them to be judged by their own records rather than by their party affiliations.

Mr. Payne in the First. Geddes in the Second, Barton in the Third and Tibbals in the Fourth are all good citizens and capable men; they could be depended upon to resist any move to introduce politics into the schools and they would make good public servants.
Mr. Cheesman, the present member of the Second ward, has been re-nominated and his record speaks for itself.
J. T. Hammond, the non-partisan nominee in the Fourth, was formerly secretary of state, and although he has always been an active partisan in politics he could be counted on to fight any political factor in school management. Judge Henderson, who has been indorsed by all the nominating conventions in the Fifth, is so well known that no comment need be made on the desirability of electing him.

Taken altogether, the nominations are the best the city has ever had for any offices and the patrons of the public schools are to be congratulated on the certainty of securing efficient, public-spirited men at the approaching election.

THE SUNDAY HERALD.

It is stating only the barest outline of the facts to say that The Sunday Herald is the best all around newspaper published in this part of the west.
That the Intermountain public appreciates this truism is evidenced by the rapid growth of the paper's circulation. So appreciative, indeed, have patrons been, that The Herald management has decided to improve the paper by the addition of some new and expensive features.

Prominent among these are a series of contributions by George Ade and another series by Peter Pinley Dunne, creator of the immortal Mr. Dooley.
The Ade series will consist of talks on history, with a view to shedding a great white light on some subjects that have heretofore been dark. The first installment, "The True History of Pocahontas and Captain John Smith," will appear next Sunday. In his quaintly humorous and always refreshing way Mr. Ade treats this subject.

It is not necessary to introduce him to readers of The Sunday Herald. He has been an intermittent contributor for many years, since, indeed, he published "Fables in Slang." As a humorous Mr. Ade ranks among the first three or four in the country. Next Sunday's contribution is in his very best vein.

Neither is it necessary to describe Mr. Dunne's Dooley letters. The genial philosopher of "Archie r-road" has talked to literally millions of people and he has always been welcome. As has been his custom he will discuss timely topics with a flavor of wit and philosophy such as only Dooley, or Dunne, could put into comments of that character.

Next Sunday a new and important series on the great works that the government has under way will be started.
C. H. Forbes Lindsay of Washington, a writer of wide experience and one who has every facility for gathering accurate information, is the author.
His first article will tell about the Panama canal, which is just now very much in the public eye by reason of the president's visit to it.

Another interesting feature for next Sunday will be the story of the president's turkey. It is an old story but this year it is told in a specially entertaining way, illustrated by photographic reproductions. Every year Hiram Voss of Rhode Island, an expert in such matters, picks the president's bird. He has been doing it since Grant became president and he is the best sort of man for the job and the story.

The Sunday Herald has pleasure in presenting these new features, for it believes the cordial patronage it has received abundantly justifies the expense involved in securing them. And of course the paper will contain all the news from all the world, as usual. "If it happens it's in The Herald." Everybody knows that.

The Pittsburgh police believe the criminals that have infested that city have started for other fields of operation. Let us all join in hoping and praying that they haven't heard of the McWhirter case.

It surely was not necessary to send out the statement that the most prominent candidate for the senatorship in Colorado is a man of many millions.

There are ninety counties in Kentucky, now, where prohibition laws are in force. It's a wise distiller that won't drink his own whiskey.

A BUNCH OF LIMERICKS.

A Peculiar Breed.

(Bide Dudley in Baltimore Sun.)
A man asked Miss Katherine Pitts
The breed of her little dog Fritz.
"Think," replied Kate,
"He's an Exquisite."
The truth was the dog was a Spitz.

Tragic.

(Anonymous.)
Hickory, dickory, dock,
The mouse ran up the clock;
Then the girl gave a yell
And prostrate she fell.
She wore that pretty silk cloak.

Puzzle: Find the Rhymes.

(Judge.)
A fellow who worked in a drug house, Had a brother employed in a carpet store.
But their staying apart, Broke each fond brother's heart.
And ere long they were both in the insane asylum.

St. So Bad.

(Ferdinand G. Christman.)
A bright little maid in St. Thomas Discovered a suit of pajamas.
Said the maid: "Well, well!
What they are I can't tell;
But I'm sure these garments St.
Thomas."

SOCIETY

Mrs. Allen M. Smith of Fort Douglas entertained seventy of her friends yesterday afternoon at a bridge tea at the post hall. The large hall was arranged in most homelike manner with numerous couches, divans and rugs, and the bright walls were hung with trinkets of a military nature. Seventeen tables were filled with the players and prizes were won by Mrs. W. H. Point, Mrs.
Farnum, Miss Winnifred Wood and Mrs. M. S. Woodward. The hostess was assisted at the tea which followed, and to which the officers were invited, by Mrs. B. C. Lockwood, Mrs. Edward P. Pendleton, Mrs. Hector D. Lane, and Mrs. Milson, one of the new ladies at the garrison, who served punch. Assisting these were Miss Cayley, Miss Claire Thompson and Miss Della Janet Richards.

Mrs. C. H. Griffin entertained a few of her friends yesterday at a luncheon at the Commercial club, followed by a party at the Orpheum. The affair was given in honor of Miss Gertrude Griffin of Denver, who is a guest at the Griffin home, and the friends invited to meet her were Mrs. Edward Richards, Mrs.
C. E. Richards, Miss Gertrude Richards, Miss Della Janet Richards, Mrs.
Elbridge Thomas and Mrs. C. R. Alley.

The Ladies' Literary club will hold the regular meeting this afternoon at the club house. Mrs. Morris L. Ritchie will give a talk on Paris, and Professor Arnold of the Logan Agricultural college will read a paper on "The Modern French Drama." The club chorus under the leadership of Mrs. W. A.
Wetzel will sing French songs, and other music will be furnished by Miss Hortense Kimball.

Mrs. W. F. Adams entertained about a score of her friends yesterday afternoon at a Kensington tea at her home.
Mrs. C. E. Richards read a charming little story written by Mrs. Morris L.
Ritchie, and Miss Florence Hurlbut gave some piano numbers.

Mrs. Benner X. Smith entertained at a small and informal luncheon yesterday for Mrs. W. T. Dinwoodey, the other guests being Mrs. A. E. Kendiespire, Mrs. H. M. Dinwoodey, Mrs. Leroy G. Dinwoodey, Mrs. Heber M.
Wells, Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr, Mrs. William Reid and Mrs. Frank W. Jennings.

The Phoenix Republican has the following of interest to Salt Lake: Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
William Grier on West Adams street, Walter Ellington and Miss Leah Cole were united in marriage, the Rev. A. R.
Maclean of the First Methodist church performing the ceremony. The couple are very well known to the younger people of this locality, and both are exceedingly popular. Mr. Ellington lived for a number of years of his early life in Phoenix, and has known his bride since early childhood. Miss Cole is a daughter of Dr. N. B. Cole of Glendale, although a great deal of her time has been passed in Phoenix. The marriage was solemnized at 8 o'clock in the presence of a very few of the most intimate friends of the couple. On the 8:30 train for the south they started on a honeymoon trip, which will include several weeks in the City of Mexico, a visit afterward to Kansas City and later to Denver and then to Salt Lake, where they will make their home. Mr. Elling-ton is chief clerk to the district freight and passenger agent of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake road. Their many friends in Phoenix wish for them a very happy trip and future.

Miss Clara Hall left yesterday morning for the coast to spend the winter.
She will visit in San Francisco and spend some time with her sister, Miss Matie Hall, at Mills college, and will then go on to Riverside and visit her aunts and uncles.

Miss Mildred Tibbals and Miss Minnie Stephenson have left Paris and are touring Belgium and Holland. They will spend Thanksgiving in Berlin, and then go to Dresden for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cates are in from Bingham for a stay of a few days.

Mrs. Effie Dean Knappen and her mother, Mrs. McAllister, have taken apartments at the Emery-Holmes, where they will be at home for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber M. Wells will give a buffet supper Sunday evening at their home for Mrs. W. T. Dinwoodey.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Dinwoodey and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy G. Dinwoodey will also entertain for Mrs. W. T. Dinwoodey at a dance to be given Tuesday evening at the Ladies' Literary club.

The Misses Eudora and Evelyn Daly will entertain the young girls of the Sewing club this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eugene Smith, who have been east on a two months' wedding trip, are back in the city for a short time.

The members of the Wasatch Literary circle will hold a sale of homemade cakes and doughnuts tomorrow at Walker's store for the benefit of the piano fund of the Westminster Presbyterian church.

Mrs. I. C. Horton is back after a visit of two months in the south with her parents.

George Levy leaves for the east today.

The first meeting of the New Card club will be held next Tuesday with Mrs. Orson Howard on First street.

Mrs. J. C. Leary is home after spending some months on the coast.

Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle, who is at St.
Mark's hospital, is rapidly improving after her illness.

The big event of today will be the dance at the giving at Christensen's new hall, at which Dr. and Mrs. E. S.
Wright and Mr. and Mrs. George W.
Reed will be the entertainers.

Mrs. A. C. Behle entertained yesterday afternoon at an informal party for Miss Sallie Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bransford entertained a party of their friends last evening at cards.

Mrs. H. J. Schuch is the hostess again yesterday at a card party given in honor of her sister, Mrs. R. B. Freeman.
